Mass Meeting of Farmers.

There was a large crowd of farmers at the meeting yesterday at the Court House, at 2 p. m., in the interest of the Burley Tobacco Growers Association. The meeting was merely to make the announcement of the great success of the movement to control the Burley crop. The crowd listened to two excellent speeches by Hon. C. M. Thomas, of this city, and Hon. Abram Renick, of Clark county. After the adjournment 100 acres more were signed with the Association.

Good Mule Sale.

W. D. McIntyre, of Millersburg, sold eight mules to J. C. Bryan, of North Middletown, Saturday, for $170 per head.

The leading brand of flour now sold is the Red Cross made by E. F. Spears & Sons.

Bad Luck For Good Colt.

The youngest yearling in America is the property of Hon. Hal Woodford, of this county. It was foaled on December 21, 1906, and was therefore officially one year old in January. The luckless youngster is a brown colt by Pink Coat, out of Ida Ledford. Both sire and dam were famous race horses, and Mr. Woodford was anxious to have the colt come early, and therefore bred the mare so that the regular eleven months of gestation would end and the foal be dropped soon after January 1. To his chagrin, however, the youngster appeared ten days too soon, which practically bars him from racing, although he is a handsome, well-developed colt.

Lost.

On streets of Paris Friday a $5.00 bill. Finder return to this office and get reward.

Coreless Apples.

George W. Stuart has on his farm, near Newport, Me., an apple tree which bears coreless apples. This year the tree bore two bushels of fruit, every apple of which was devoid of a core. The tree was planted on the farm years ago by Moses Stuart, grandfather of the present occupant. The phenomenon is being studied by experts on fruit growing.

Craven's Lunch Counter.

It is said that Craven fed more people yesterday (Court Day) than any place in town. The reason it is said is because he has the best and cheapest lunches.

Dandelions in Bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. J. A. Rice, while out driving Sunday afternoon gathered a good size bouquet of dandelions that were blooming on the side of the road. This is rather early for dandelions, but the Spring like weather of last few days is liable to bring the blooms at blossoms.

Board of Supervisors Meet.

The County Board of Supervisors of taxes met yesterday at the court house and organized, sworn in, and will be in session beginning this morning at 9 o'clock, from day to day until its work is completed. The Board is composed of the following: R. J. Neely, chairman; Geo. Hassenfoss, W. G. McClintock, Warren Rogers, W. F. Heathman, J. W. Thompson, B. F. Buckley.

A Newspaper Lie Emanating From Lexington.

A telegram dated Lexington, Ky., Jan. 5, 1907, to the daily papers telling of one C. O. Martin, a bunco man, working a number of lawyers through the Bluegrass section, one at Georgetown and a Frankfort firm, in some unexplainable way brought Paris into Martin's circuit and used the name of Hon. E. M. Dickson as the victim from Paris. How the reporter let his imagination do this we do not know, but we do know that in regard to Mr. Dickson being worked by this sharper is absolutely false. There is not one word of truth in the report when it relates to Paris. Persons should be careful in such matters and investigate before they use a gentleman's name in a matter of this kind, when it is a lie in the whole cloth. Mr. Dickson informs us there is not one word of truth in the report and that he does not enjoy being advertised for such a sucker by some irresponsible Lexington newspaper correspondent who writes for space only.
